ALL SORTS.

Abe Cohn is smiling harder than anybody; he sold fifteen overcoats yesterday.

The workmen have commenced work on the curbing around the Government building.

W. A. Pinkerton, General Manager of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, will be in Reno the latter part of this week.

H. H. Beck and Wm. Curtis, the architect, had a scrap in Reno yesterday at the Fair grounds. No arrests were made.

Nevada won the great race in Reno yesterday in 2:09. Only four horses started. Almont was second and Shaanon third.

Sheriff Botsford took a shot at Adam Dixon last night who was trying to slip a warrant for arrest. Dixon got away on horseback.

The miners will be down from Virginia to attend the District Fair, and the mines will be closed down one day next week for the occasion.

The special train to the State Fair has not been crowded the last two days, but if the weather brightens many visitors intend to go to Reno.

All Union veterans are requested to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to attend the funeral of their late comrade, John E. Morris, formerly of Company D, 80th Illinois Infantry.

A. Livingston secured the bar privilege at the District Fair track for $955. The Capital Band will render the music for $300. Archer Baker secured the fruit, candy and nut privilege for $50.75.

We hear that Laird & Lee, the Chicago publishers, offer a cash prize of one thousand dollars for the best manuscript novel by an American author sent to them for examination between now and March 31st next.

Owing to failing health, the Washoe Nurseries with stock and fixtures, also a fine assortment of fruit, shade and ornamental trees, shrubbery, etc., for sale at a reasonable price. For further particulars address Mrs. R. P. M. Kelly Box 1, Reno, Nev. s16m

A headline in the Santa Barbara Independent reads: "The United States has Many Enemies in South America." It might be entirely true if it read: "The United States has Many Enemies in the United States." The truth of this can be found by studying the question of "Church and State."

The ladies of the committee appointed by the Directors of the District Fair are urgently requested to meet at the Bullion & Exchange Bank at 1 p. m. to-day. Very important business will come before the meeting and every lady is urged to be present. By order of Chairman of Committee.

San Francisco is a splendid newspaper town, says the Oakland Times. It is a great town for sensations. On Monday a drunken policeman shot an unarmed laborer three times, a despondent cook blew himself to pieces with dynamite, and a young woman tried to drown herself to keep from marrying an old man. Newspaper faking is out of place in such a field as that.

Gar. Dick.

State Senator Evan Williams came up from Sacramento yesterday. He said that his horse Our Dick was quite sick with epizootic and that it was doubtful if he would be able to start him. He was entered at both Sacramento and Stockton, but was too sick to keep his engagement at either place. Mr. Williams said that Our Dick was very popular throughout the entire California circuit. Orin Hancock thinks he will be able to make a 2:10 record next year. Dick manages to hold his own in company with such fast ones as Turk Frank, Gold Medal, Prince Allen and Hummer, which speaks well for a Nevada production.—Journal.

Dick will be at the District Fair.

JOHN MORRIS DEAD.

He Dies in His Room of Heart Disease.

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock Jennie Forest of the Capitol Lodging House notified her neighbors that John Morris was lying on the floor of his room unconscious. Medical assistance was at once procured and the limp form put upon the bed. Dr. Guion after an examination, pronounced him dead, stating that his death in all probability arose from heart trouble. The night before he had been in attendance upon a sick friend and did not return to his room until 5:20 yesterday morning. Jennie Forest, the proprietress of the house, says:

"Morris came in this morning (yesterday) and as he passed down the hall said hello. I answered him and he went to his room. Shortly afterwards I heard a fall and went to him. He was on the floor and apparently intoxicated. I bathed his head, smoothed back his hair and rubbed him, after which I covered him well up with blankets and put a pillow under his head. He remained in the same position all the rest of the day until I secured help about 2 o'clock."

Morris was an old soldier in the late war and had an honorable discharge which was found among his effects. It states that John E. Morris, Sergeant of Company D, 80th Regiment, Illinois Infantry, was enrolled as a volunteer on the 1st day of August, 1862, and discharged the 10th day of June, 1865, at Camp Harker, Tennessee.

Morris was born in Lexington, Kentucky, in 1843, and joined the army when 19 years old. He leaves a grown up daughter who is living with her mother in Oswego, Ill. Her picture was found in a small pocket book next to his discharge from the army. His mother is also living in St. Genevieve, Missouri with John's son. He talked very little of his life, was a printer by trade and a member of the Typographical Union, and was probably known by many of the old time printers of this coast. Several years ago Johnny worked on the APPEAL when the newspaper business was flourishing in Nevada and subsequently worked in the State Printing Office from time to time. He was until lately employed in the Mint, but for several weeks has not been at work.

The remains were taken charge of by the Coroner and will be buried from Sam Wright's undertaking shop at 3 p. m. today. Many old soldiers will turn out at the funeral.

The Coroner's Jury rendered a verdict to the effect that he came to his death from natural causes. May John E. Morris, the ex-soldier and printer, rest in peace.

The Great Show.

Now that McMahon's Circus is announced for two exhibitions at Carson on Wednesday, Sept. 29. Quite an interest is being manifested as among the many wonders Jo-Jo, the original Russian dog-face boy, will be with us and doubtless thousands of persons who are not in the habit of attending shows will be found wending their way towards the pavilion on that occasion. Queen Jumbo, the largest elephant in the world, will also come in for a fair share of the attention. An exchange says of this show: "The excellent character of entertainment always presented by McMahon himself, now the greatest of riders, insured a large attendance and with the allied attractions Jo-Jo, the big elephant and other features, called forth the largest gathering of well pleased people that ever attended a circus in this city."

Peter Millich.

The one-eyed Italian better known as Pete Millich, has been indicted by Douglas Grand Jury for horse stealing. Pete woke up to find six charges against him, took offence at such proceedings and came to Carson.

The Tribune is wrong again as usual. Pete is not a member of the Grand Jury.

Canadian politicians appear to be built on the same plan as those of the United States. Majority and minority reports are presented on the charges against public officials, the committee being divided on strict party lines as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, according to the time honored practice of legislative committees.

The failure of the Westinghouse air brake to work at the most critical moments continues. The public is getting pretty tired of this sort of business, but the smash ups keep on coming just the same. The brakeman of the past no longer there.

We ask the Superintendent "Who's to blame?" He languidly replies, "Oh, just the air."

A list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Carson City Post Office.

LADIES LIST.

Mrs. Edith Smith, Minnie Taylor, Mrs. Eliza Green.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Willis Baker, Dr. J. S. Gunseley, E. F. Baird, H. Pugh, M. Bachman, C. G. West.

H. S. Rodman,
Postmaster.

"What do you think of Smith?"
"I think he's a very bright fellow."

"Well, you know he doesn't speak well of you."

"What do you suppose I care what an ass like Smith thinks of me?"—Star.

Miss Ella Bender departed for San Francisco last night.

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't it is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely at your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
